Thanks for the follow up...I am forwarding your email to Frank Avila, who oversees the roofing crew.....
I only shared info that was given to me.....

Hi Vicki,

We spoke to the parents and director and they said they had zero prior notice to the work being done, they said they would have made arrangements otherwise. Here are some other points:

- They stated that the workers said that they had just gotten their assignment that morning and were very apologetic. See pictures attached, it looks like the debris was pretty bad, given that they're an outdoor school.
- They also were firm on that the workers did not leave until after 11AM. They did say they were very nice and that they wanted to complete the so they did not have to return and disrupt the school again.

A big issue seems to be the fact that we don't have a full-time director at the center. We hear Nicole is only there a very limited amount of time. We have also heard complaints about her and her managerial skills.

Thanks.
